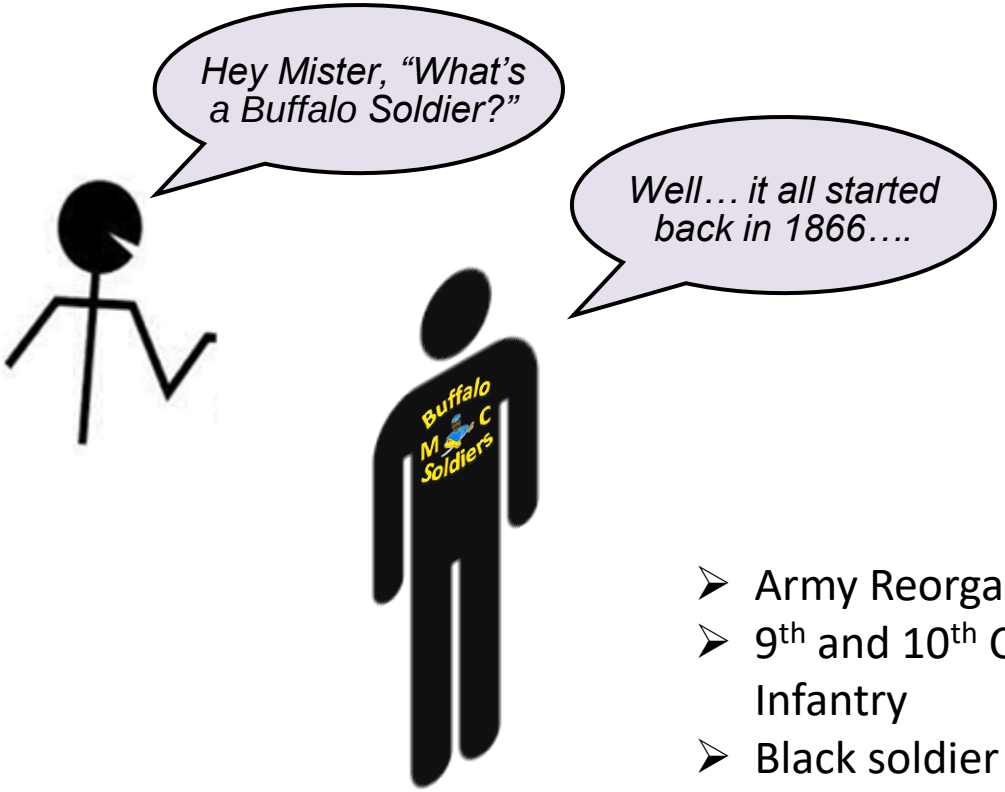
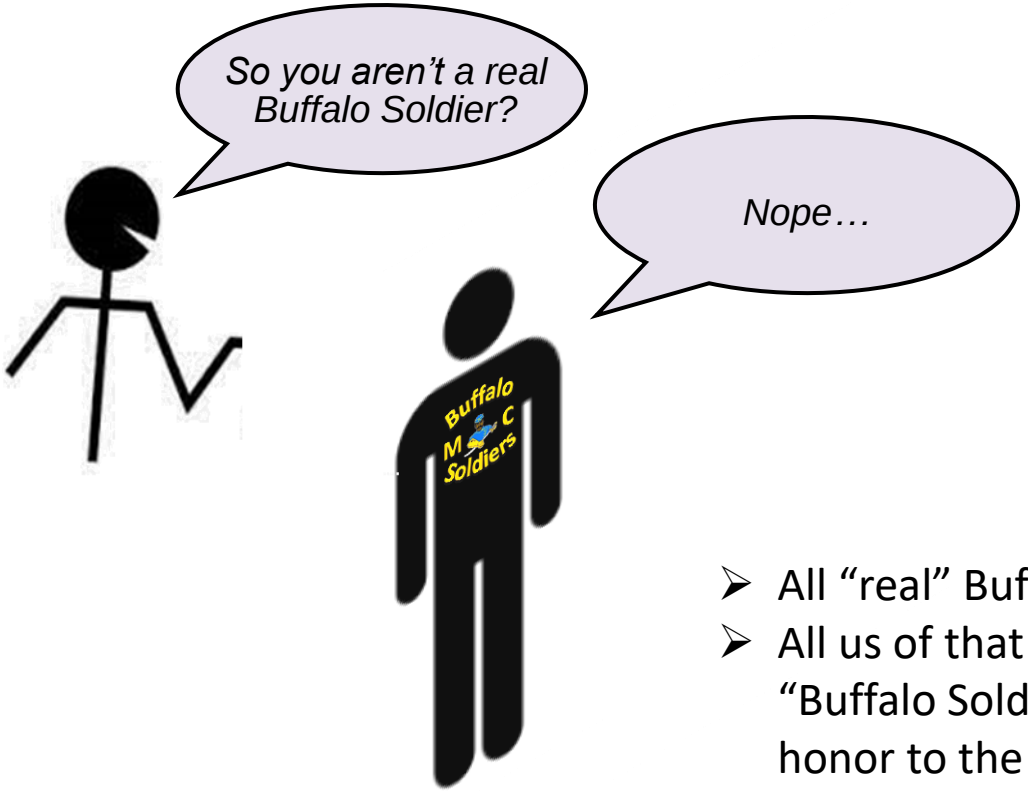
The 9th and 10th Calvary Buffalo Soldiers

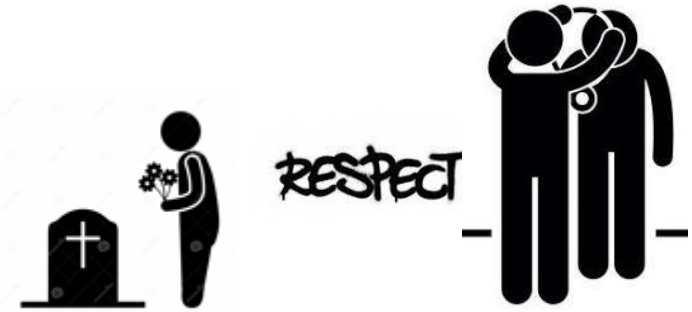
A Five Minute History Brief

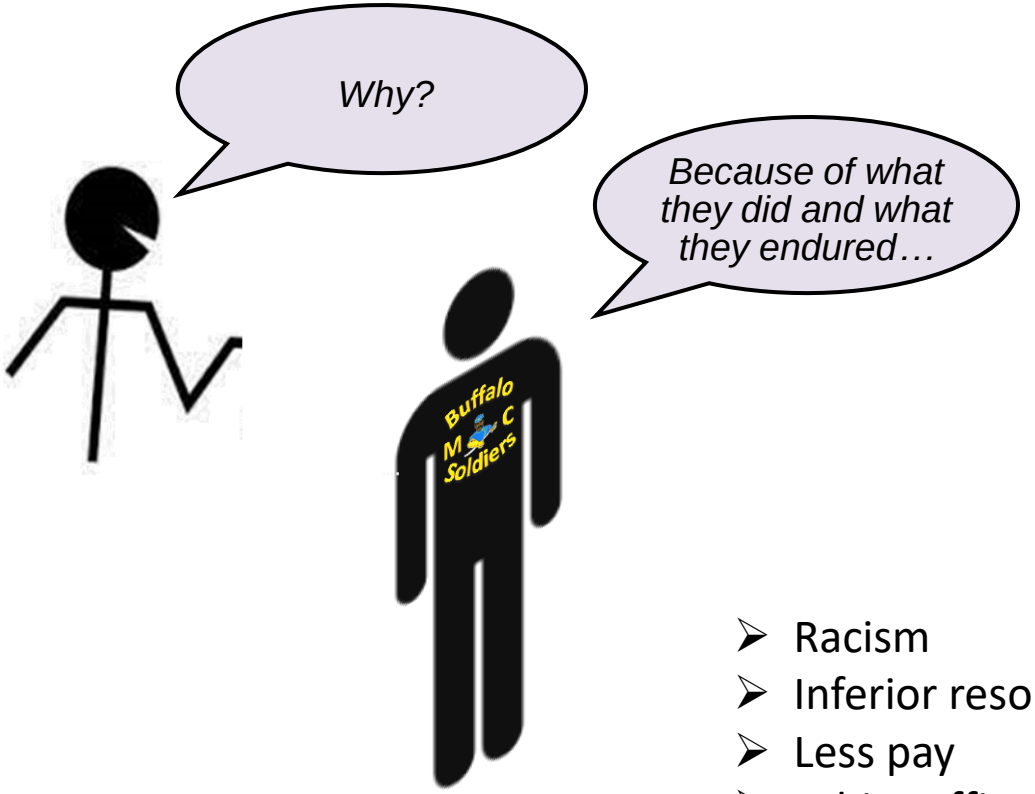


- Army Reorganization Act of 1866
- 9th and 10th Calvary and the 24th and 25th Infantry
- Black soldier regiments
- Name given to 10th Calvary soldiers by native Americans
- Name adopted by other regiments
- Regiments "deactivated" starting in 1944
- People still identify with/as Buffalo Soldiers after 1944



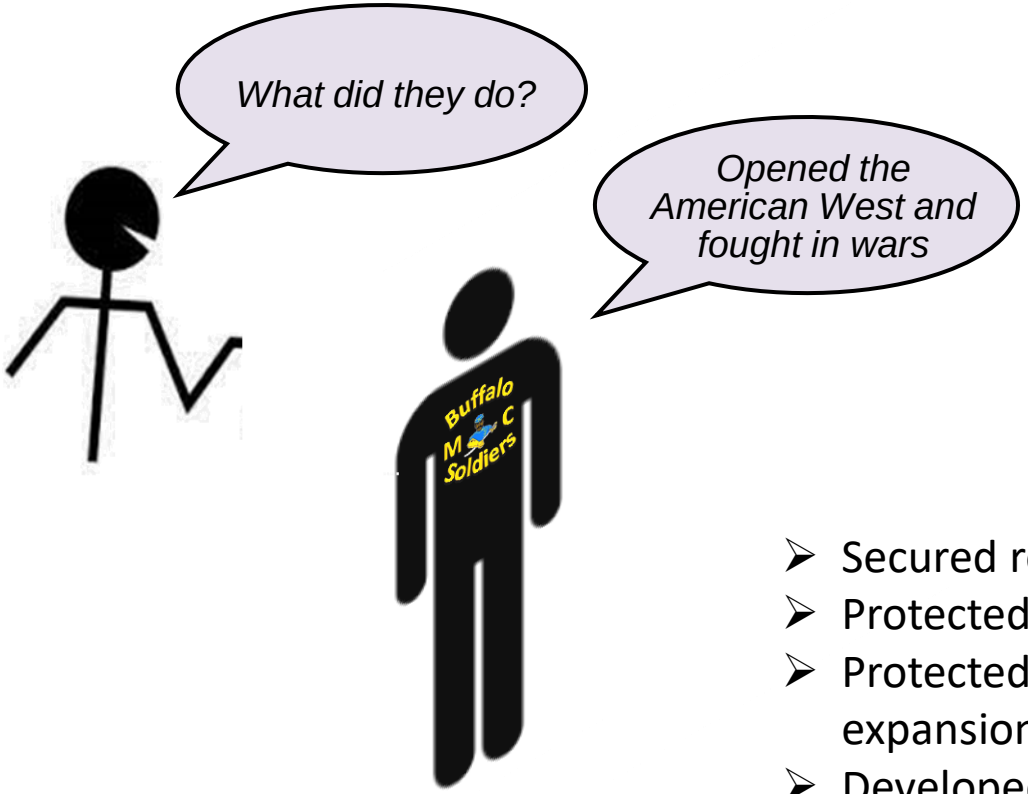
- All "real" Buffalo Soldiers are dead
- All us of that wear something that says "Buffalo Soldiers" are paying respect and honor to the "real Buffalo Soldiers" that served in those units



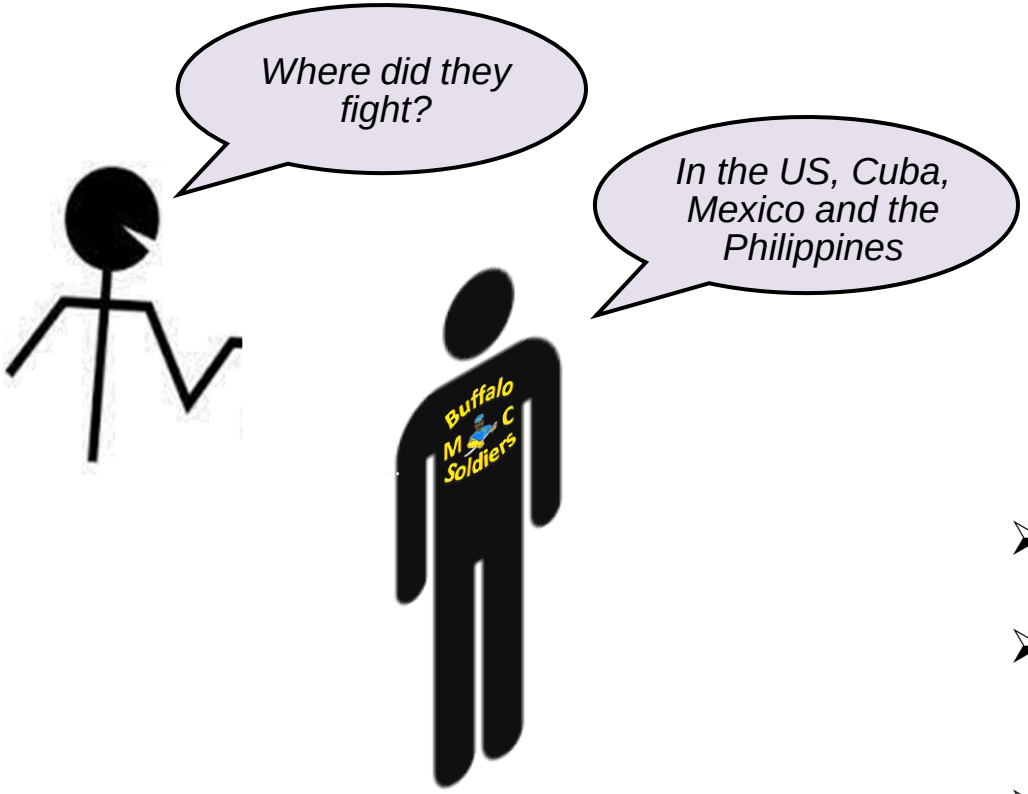


- Racism
- Inferior resources
- Less pay
- White officers

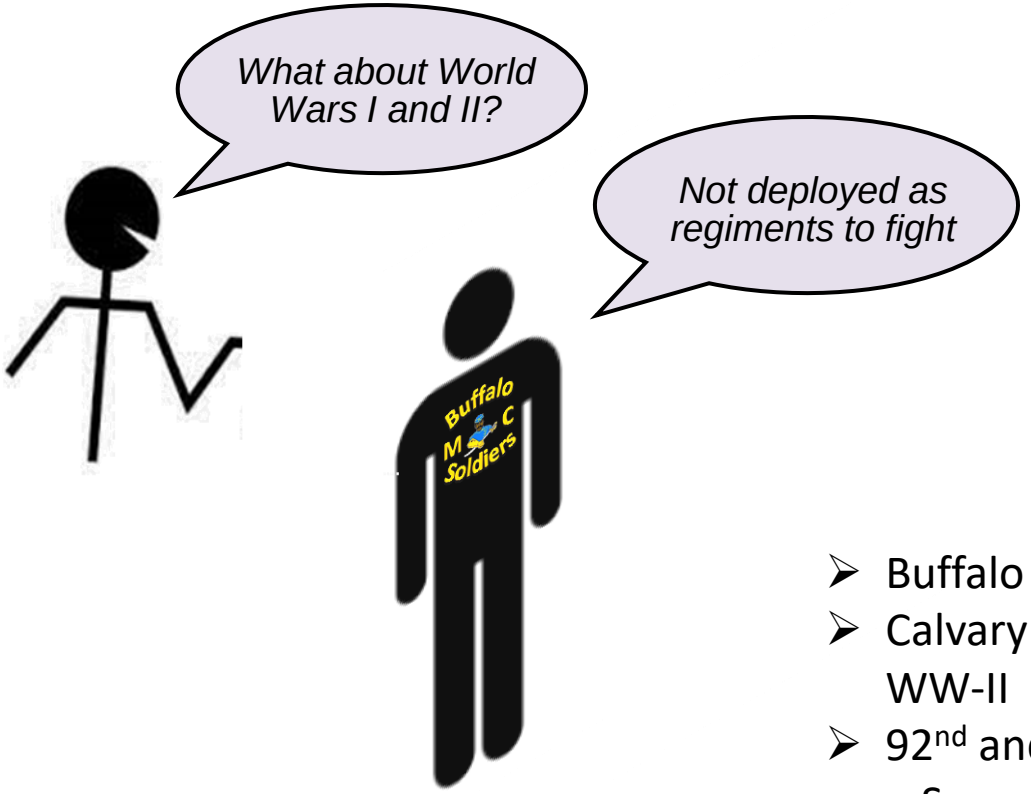
- Superior horsemanship
- Proven soldiers
- Fought with distinction in numerous campaigns
- Professionalism
- Low desertion



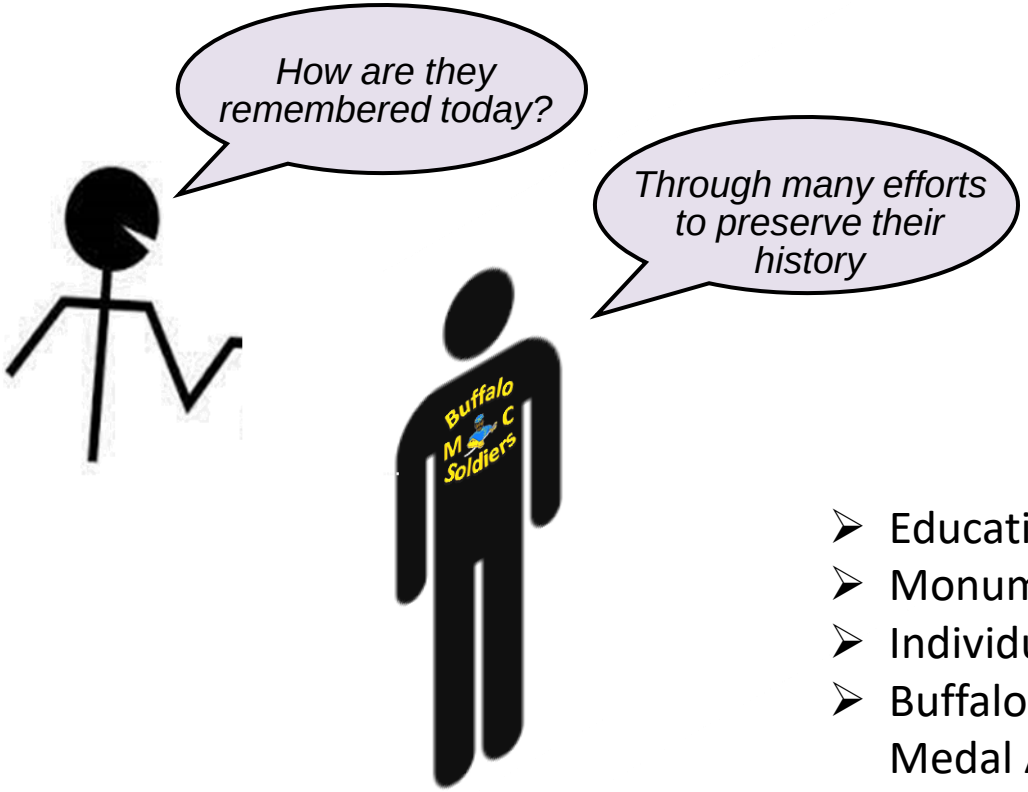
- Secured roads and bridges
- Protected railroads and mail routes
- Protected settlers during westward expansion
- Developed and protected National Parks
- Taught riding to cadets at West Point
- Fought in many wars and military campaigns



- Indian Wars
  - American West
- Spanish-American War
  - Santiago Cuba - San Juan Hill with the Rough Riders
- Philippine–American War
  - Conflicted sentiment
- Mexican Expedition
  - Poncho Villa



- Buffalo Soldiers not deployed in WW-I
- Calvary deactivated in 1944 leading into WW-II
- 92nd and 93rd Infantry Divisions formed
  - Served in France and Italy
  - WW-I under French command
  - WW-II in both Pacific and Europe
  - 92nd takes nickname “Buffalo Soldiers”



MEDAL OF HONOR

- Education and Awareness
- Monuments, Statues and Dedications
- Individual Medals of Honor
- Buffalo Soldiers Congressional Gold Medal Act of 2020
- People like those of the Buffalo Soldiers Motorcycle Club who proudly take their nickname and honor their legacy
- And now… through people like you